

Want to apply your academic studies to real-world problems? Interested in helping to create solutions that have an impact?

Apply to participate in our First-Year Foundations program by March 29, 2024.

First-Year Foundations 2024

First-Year Foundations is a one-day career development program for first-year students (graduating in 2027) who self-identify with at least one historically underrepresented group.

During the program, you will participate in a series of learning experiences designed to give you the tools and resources you need to navigate the economic consulting industry, obtain hands-on experience through a mini-project, and gain insight from our consultants. If you are looking for exposure to a new industry, career options, and lasting networking connections, First-Year Foundations could be the opportunity for you.

How do I know this program is for me?

We created this program for qualified first-year students from a wide range of colleges and universities. This program is for you if you are:

- Seeking opportunities to connect with diverse professionals
- Analytical and intellectually curious
- Ready to learn new skills
- Drawn to economics and finance
- Interested in a consulting career

When is the program?

The virtual one-day program will be held on Wednesday, May 29, 2024. We will be offering two time options to accommodate attendees in different time zones.

Ready to apply? Here's how.

Visit our careers page for full details. Please submit your resume, college transcript, personal statement (in the form of a cover letter), and application questions by March 29, 2024.
